Cumberland takes on sixth-ranked Martin Methodist

Cumberland heads to Pulaski for a matchup against Martin Methodist in the final regular season road game of the year for the Bulldogs. The RedHawks have won six straight games and lead the TranSouth with an 11-2 record, two games ahead of Cumberland. Martin Methodist leads the series, 13-9, since CU rejoined the TranSouth in 2002-03. MMC has won four straight in the series and five of the last six meetings, with CU's last victory was a 101-99 overtime triumph in 2010 in Pulaski. Four of the last five wins for Martin Methodist have come by double figures (an average of 12.0 per victory) with only a 75-73 triumph in Pulaski last year's regular season contest.

Martin starts fast en route to victory

In this season's first game, Martin Methodist started fast, ended the first half on a 15-3 run and never looked back in an 84-69 victory. The Bulldogs shot just 35 percent, committed 12 turnovers and trailed 44-25 at the end of the first half. The RedHawks were never threatened after intermission, keeping the lead between 16 and 23 until the final minute of the game. LaQuantis Stewart led four MMC players in double figures with 18 points, while James Justice and Jeremy Rodgers both netted 17 and Ree McCrory posted 13. Jerret Towns paced the Bulldogs with 12 points and seven boards off the bench. MMC led 11-2 and 16-5 in the early going thanks to seven points from McCrory, including a pair of free throws before the opening tip after a CU player dunked during warm-ups. The Bulldogs pulled within six points on two occasions and trailed 29-22 after a Josh Pierce bucket with 4:18 left in the half, but the RedHawks put together a 15-3 spurt to end the period. Justice started the run with a 3-pointer and David Champagne hit six free throws, the final two 34 seconds before intermission. Cumberland shot 55 percent from the field in the second half but could never mount a run against the RedHawks, who at times beat CU up the floor for easy baskets even after Bulldog makes.

Bulldogs have won seven straight

After losing three straight and four of five in late January, Cumberland has put together a season-best seven-game winning streak, including victories at Freed-Hardeman and Union University and a home win over rival Trevecca Nazarene. Lonnie Thompson made a lineup change at Mid-Continent on January 28, as the 10th-year head coach has been looking for production from a two-guard all season. His solution to the problem was adding more size to the lineup, inserting 6-5 sophomore Terry Williams and moving Josh Pierce to the off-guard spot, at least to start games. The move has seemed to work so far for the Bulldogs, who have a 7-1 mark since Williams became a starter. Victories in the last week over Trevecca and Bethel University were typical of most for the Bulldogs this season with a fast start, a lull in the middle and a strong ending. Cumberland led early in the game and took an eight-point advantage at the break against TNU. The Bulldogs pushed the lead to 12 early in the second half, but an 11-2 run by the Trojans tied the game at 53 with 8:11 remaining after consecutive buckets from Eric Orr. Michael Sweat, who finished with a season-high 26 points, answered on CU's next trip with a trifecta and added another two minutes later and the Trojans never pulled closer than two the rest of the game. Sweat made five 3-pointers and Lamar Brinkley added 18 points, as Cumberland led wire-to-wire. In Thursday's win over Bethel, CU put together 11-0 and 13-2 runs in the first half and led by 21 points early in the second half, only to have the Wildcats cut the deficit to nine before the Bulldogs hit 8-of-9 free throws down the stretch. During the seven-game winning streak, CU has made 41 percent (50-of-122) from behind the arc compared to 27 percent (21-for-79) during a five-game stretch from January 16-28.

Sweat posts 20 and 17 against Bethel

Senior Michael Sweat has played at an all-conference level over the last nine contests after a career-worst slump during January. His latest effort was one of the best of his career, recording 20 points and a career-high 17 rebounds in Thursday's win over Bethel University, including 13 points and 10 boards in the first half alone. The Gallatin, Tenn., native finished 8-for-18 from the field with a pair of 3-pointers and two others that rattled in-and-out, but he cleaned the glass and helped the Bulldogs win the battle of the boards, 38-33. The former Columbia State CC product was averaging 16.1 points and 6.1 rebounds per game in the first 12 contests of the season, but he began a downswing on Jan. 7 against Freed-Hardeman with just five points of 2-of-10 shooting and battled illness over the next two weeks. Over a six-game stretch starting against FHU, the 6-foot-7 forward netted just 34 total points on 14-of-45 shooting (.311), including 4-for-15 (.267) from 3-point range. Sweat was finally able to take out many of his frustrations against Oakwood University on Jan.

23, making 10-of-12 attempts with a pair of tri-fectas and two free throws for 24 total points. That started a nine-game stretch in which he has averaged 17.9 points and 7.2 rebounds per game on 50 percent shooting (57-of-114) with 24 3-pointers (24-of-50, 48 percent). He posted 20 points of 8-of-14 shooting with four 3-pointers at Mid-Continent and added 13 points at Auburn Montgomery, including the game-winning jumper with 1.2 seconds left. Sweat recorded 13 points and tied a then career-best with 16 rebounds against Lyon College, including 11 on the defensive end, before registering 20 points and 10 boards at Freed-Hardeman for his third double-double of the season. He leads the Bulldogs with 14.4 points per game (seventh-best in TranSouth) and ranks second with 6.1 rebounds per contest.

Pierce comes through in the clutch at Union

Josh Pierce's two free throws with 8.7 seconds remaining put Cumberland ahead and a tip-in at the buzzer by Union's Skyler Vaden was disallowed, giving the Bulldogs a thrilling 66-65 victory Monday night in Jackson. The Bulldogs held a five-point edge with 2:35 remaining after Pierce, a 33 percent foul shooter for the season, knocked down two shots. But Cumberland did not score on four straight possessions, allowing Union to regain the lead with a pair of 3-point plays, the first by Vaden and the second from David Lane with 22.9 seconds remaining. Pierce was fouled on the baseline with 8.7 seconds left and after a timeout by Union, the Valdosta, Ga., senior calmly nailed two more free throws and CU regained the lead. Lane drove the ball the length of the floor, was forced into the air under the basket and passed to Dani Marti, who took a high-arching jumper that did not hit the rim. Vaden tipped in the miss and one official called the shot good, but after a meeting of all three officials the basket was waved off, giving the Bulldogs their first victory over Union in the last six meetings. The game featured 16 ties and 16 lead changes. Cumberland led by nine in the first five minutes of the game, but Union answered with a 12-0 spurt. From there Union's six-point edge late in the first half was the largest lead for either team. CU's Jerret Towns scored a season-high 17 points off the bench, including three 3-pointers, while Johnny Williams added a season-best 16 points with six rebounds and three assists in 35 minutes. Michael Sweat netted 11 points and Lamar Brinkley posted 10 before fouling out with just over a minute to play. Lane led five Union players in double figures with 14 points, while Vaden posted 12 points and 10 rebounds. Anthony Freeman, Leventrice Gray and Antoine Hall all scored 12 points as well.

Williams can be a difference-maker

Senior Johnny Williams has taken advantage of increased playing time over the last four games due to an injury to Charles Stewart. Williams was a main cog in CU's thrilling 66-65 victory Monday at Union University, contributing a season-high 16 points along with a team-best six rebounds as well as three assists and just one turnover. He posted 11 points and five assists in last Saturday's victory over Trevecca Nazarene, just his fifth double-figure game of the season. Williams was one of the main reasons Cumberland pulled out a 54-52 victory on January 30 at Auburn Montgomery, posting 10 points, seven rebounds, four assists and just one turnover in 29 minutes. Williams played his first three collegiate seasons at AUM, averaging 8.0 points and 3.8 assists per game in 2010-11. The Birmingham, Ala., native played perhaps the best game of his collegiate career on January 7, leading the club with 14 points, seven rebounds and seven assists in an 82-81 victory over then 17th-ranked Freed-Hardeman. Williams was 5-for-7 from the field and 4-of-5 at the foul line, including two makes at the charity stripe with 17 seconds remaining. Williams is averaging 7.5 points, 3.5 rebounds and 3.7 assists and ranks seventh in the TranSouth in assists.

dem that has been superb at times but also very average at others. Stewart has been more on the superb end of late, especially in his last two games played, scoring 11 points against Lyon College (in just 11 minutes) and then 15 at Freed-Hardeman, including 10-for-10 at the foul line in the second half. The Birmingham, Ala., native added five rebounds, two assists and two steals at FHU, playing 24 minutes because of Williams' foul trouble. Over his last six games Stewart is averaging 8.5 points per outing, netting 10 against Martin Methodist and nine at Mid-Continent. For a 5-9 guard, he is also an excellent rebounder, tallying four or more caroms in 10 of his last 15 games this season. Stewart has missed the last four games with a toe injury but hopes to return Saturday at Martin Methodist. He is averaging 5.7 points, 3.1 rebounds, 2.6 assists and 1.1 steals per game this season.

Practice? Who needs practice?

After missing three games because of an ankle injury and not practicing the last two weeks, senior Jerret Towns scorched the nets for 16 points in just 10 minutes of action in the first half at Freed-Hardeman on February 4 and then posted a season-best 17 points with three more trifectas on Monday at Union University. The Dolomite, Ala., native made 4-of-6 from 3-point range at FHU, added a bucket in the lane and hit two free throws for 16 points, adding an assist and two steals in his limited action. Towns did not play in the second half because of the injury, but he helped stake the Bulldogs to a 12-point halftime lead en route to a 16-point victory on the road. After a subpar outing at Blue Mountain, Towns played only four minutes against Trevecca Nazarene before making 6-of-13 from the field, 3-for-5 from behind the arc, for his team-best 17 points at Union in CU's 66-65 triumph in Jackson, the Bulldogs first win over Union in six tries and just the second in the last nine meetings between the two clubs. He posted seven points, five assists, four rebounds and three steals in 23 minutes of action Thursday against Bethel University. Towns, a Tennessee

State transfer, has averaged 8.9 points, third-best on the club, along with 3.2 rebounds with 33 assists and 27 steals in 22 contests this season. He scored 16 points in CU's early-season victory over then 17th-ranked St. Catharine College and added 14 points in a later loss to the Patriots. Towns also recorded his first career double-double on January 14 at Trevecca Nazarene with 13 points and 10 rebounds.

Brinkley gets his game back together

Junior Lamar Brinkley started the TranSouth slate averaging 14.8 points and 7.0 rebounds through the first four games, including 21 points and 11 rebounds at Trevecca Nazarene. But the Nashville, Tenn., native hit the skids at the same time as CU's four-game conference losing streak in late January, netting just 15 total points in contests versus Bethel University, Union University and Martin Methodist. He rebounded with 15 points and eight boards in a two-point loss against Mid-Continent and recorded 11 points against both Lyon College and Freed-Hardeman. Brinkley recorded his fourth double-double of the season at Blue Mountain with 17 points and 10 boards and posted 18 points and seven caroms last Saturday against Trevecca Nazarene. He is averaging 10.7 points and 6.3 rebounds per game for the season, both career-bests, ninth in the TranSouth in rebounds per game.

McFadden continues scoring off the bench
Redshirt freshman Daniel McFadden has excelled at times this season for the Bulldogs in the scoring column, netting seven or more points in 10 of the 14 TranSouth contests to date, all coming off the bench. The Nashville, Tenn., native has scored in double figures six times this season, including four against conference foes. He put together perhaps his best game of the season on February 2 against Lyon College, knocking down three 3-pointers and netting a team-best 14 points in a season-high 24 minutes. He has also hit big shots at times for CU, including during his seven-point outing at Trevecca Nazarene. TNU cut a 15-point Cumberland lead to four points in the second half, but McFadden's 3-pointer from the left corner got the Bulldogs back on track en route to the victory. He scored all nine of his points in the first half to keep CU in the game at Bethel University and did the same thing versus Union University. McFadden missed the first seven contests of the year with a foot injury. For the season he is averaging 6.9 points and 2.5 rebounds in 14.9 minutes per game but has upped that number to 7.3 points and 3.0 rebounds in just 15.9 minutes per contest in conference action.

Sweat voted Preseason All-TSAC; CU chosen fourth in Coaches' Poll

Michael Sweat was one of 10 players voted to the 2011 TranSouth Preseason All-Conference Team. The Bulldogs were picked fourth in a poll of league coaches. Sweat earned TranSouth Conference Player of the Week honors twice last season and averaged 10.6 points and a team-best 6.6 rebounds per game. The Gallatin, Tenn., native posted two double-doubles and started the final 18 games of the year. Martin Methodist's James Justice was voted the Preseason Player of the Year. The RedHawks were the preseason favorite in the Coaches' Poll. Union University was second in the Coaches' Poll, followed by Freed-Hardeman and then the Bulldogs. Bethel ranked fifth, with Lyon College, Mid-Continent and Blue Mountain rounding out the poll.

Head Coach Lonnie Thompson

Lonnie Thompson enters his 10th season as head coach at Cumberland after leading the Bulldogs to the NAIA National Tournament for the third time in seven years in 2009 and picking up his 200th career victory in the coaching profession.

Thompson has produced two TranSouth Conference Players of the Year – Alonzo Evans in 2004 and Brandon Springer in 2010 – along with 14 All-Conference performers. Three players have earned All-Freshman Team accolades along with eight TranSouth Players of the Week and one NAIA Player of the Week honor.

Cumberland played in the 2009 NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Mo., for the second consecutive year, a first in program history. The Bulldogs lost in the first round of the tournament to Auburn-Montgomery, 72-62. Thompson collected his 200th career coaching victory during the 2009 season with a 72-69 triumph over Lambuth University.

CU participated in the 2008 NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City as well, dropping an 81-64 decision in the first round to Oklahoma City Univ.

Thompson's best coaching job may have come in 2010 when only one letterman returned to the club. The Bulldogs started the year very slowly but finished 12-17 overall, including 10-8 against TranSouth competition, finishing third in the conference tournament. The 2011 club began the year 3-7 but posted an 11-5 mark in TranSouth play and completed the season 18-12 overall.

The Woodbury, Ga., native led the Bulldogs to the first NAIA National Tournament appearance in program history during his second season, a club that reached the Sweet 16 in Kansas City. Cumberland finished with a school-record 28 victories in 2004 and Thompson was a unanimous selection for TranSouth Coach of the Year honors.

He captured his 100th career victory as a head coach in 2004 and Cumberland won its first TranSouth Conference championship. Thompson has produced three 20-win campaigns during his seven seasons in Lebanon.

Thompson came to CU from Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., where he led the Bucks to back-to-back TJCCAA Eastern Division Championships. He was named TJCCAA Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times while at Motlow.

Thompson has a depth of coaching experience at all levels of college basketball, serving as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee State, Creighton and Odessa Junior College, where he coached former NBA All-Star Larry Johnson.

Lonnie and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Destin and Darius, and one daughter, Devin, and the family resides in Murfreesboro.

Kyle Upton hit three 3-pointers and scored 12 points in the first half Jerret Towns added a dozen points as well, leading four Cumberland players in double figures in an 81-60 victory over Fisk University in men's basketball action Monday night at the Dallas Floyd Recreation Center.

Eleven of the 13 Bulldogs who played in the contest scored, including six players with nine or more points. The Bulldogs (2-0) took advantage of 20 Fisk miscues, turning those into 25 points, and netted 36 points in the paint thanks to a height advantage in the front court.

Both teams started slowly but the Bulldogs used a 19-8 run over eight minutes to open a 36-20 advantage with 4:41 remaining in the first half. Upton started the spurt with a 3-pointer and Michael Sweat and Andrew Ayodeji each hit a trifecta to end the run.

But Fisk fought back before the half, scoring 10 of the final 13 points before the break, including a 3-pointer from Cameron Lewis and a driving layup by Darrell Miller. CU took a 39-30 lead to intermission.

Cumberland started the second half on a 10-0 run thanks to eight straight points from Towns, including a pair of 3-pointers. Fisk continued to fight the rest of the contest but never pulled closer than a dozen points.

Lamar Brinkley and Charles Stewart each finished with 11 points for the Bulldogs, while Sweat and Johnny Williams both collected nine points. Sweat led CU with nine rebounds and Brinkley added six caroms, while Williams posted five assists and Stewart had four.

Cumberland turned the ball over just 13 times in the game and handed out 18 assists.

Michael Sweat and Lamar Brinkley each recorded double-doubles and Cumberland withstood a six-minute drought in the second half without a field goal, hanging on to defeat 17th-ranked St. Catharine College, 84-75.

The Bulldogs (4-0) ended the first half on a 17-6 run to tie the contest at 38 and then scored the first 14 points of the second half. CU pushed its advantage to 60-43 after a Brinkley jumper with 10:52 remaining. Brinkley's field goal with 9:27 left put the lead at 15 again, but then the Bulldogs went cold, making just five free throws over the next 6:18 before Andrew Ayodeji nailed a 3-pointer just before the shot clock expired with 3:30 left, giving CU a 73-61 lead.

The Patriots (1-1) would not go away, cutting the deficit to six after a DeShawn Mitchell layup with 2:26 remaining, but Cumberland made 9-of-10 foul shots in the final two minutes to seal the victory.

Sweat finished with 21 points and 13 rebounds while Brinkley added 18 points and 10 boards. The Bulldogs won the battle of the boards despite a marked size advantage for SCC, 42-35. Jerret Towns contributed 16 points and Ayodeji netted 14, none bigger than the trifecta from the wing to end the long scoring drought.

Mitchell led five St. Catharine players in double figures with 17 points, while Fateen Belfield posted 11 and Brandon Johnson, Stefan Pope and Kevin Kornegay all scored 10. SCC made just 12-of-32 (.375) from the field in the second half, missing its first nine shots and committing four turnovers.

SCC started the game 7-of-14 from the field and took a 16-5 less than seven minutes into the game. Johnson netted seven of the Patriots' points during the opening run, including a dunk that forced CU's second timeout in the early going.

But the Bulldogs settled down thereafter, chipping away at the deficit in the final nine minutes of the period. A driving layup by Johnny Williams cut SCC's advantage to 25-18 with 7:28 remaining, but the Patriots pushed the lead back to 11 with a layup from Kornegay and two free throws by Terrance Withers.

Cumberland ended the half on a 17-6 run, starting with a Sweat baseline jumper before he nailed a 3-pointer on the next trip down the floor. Kyle Upton added a trifecta from the corner and then Towns made a driving layup that touched nearly every part of the rim before finally dropping.

Towns then nailed a 3-pointer on the break and Ayodeji added another from behind the arc with 29 seconds remaining, tying the contest at 38 at intermission.

Sweat scored 15 points in the period and Towns added nine. The Bulldogs were 2-of-10 from the field in the first seven minutes but made 11 of its final 20 shots in the half.

Michael Sweat and Jerret Towns each scored 20 points and Cumberland erased an early 10-point deficit before outlasting Bryan College, 71-67, in men's basketball action Tuesday night in Dayton, Tenn.

Cumberland extended its season-opening winning streak to five games and defeated the Lions (1-3) for the second time in five days. Andrew Ayodeji added 12 points for the Bulldogs in the victory.

The Bulldogs fell behind 7-0 and 12-2 to start the contest, but a 14-4 run led by two field goals from Sweat and a bucket as well as a 3-pointer by Towns tied the score at 16. No team led by more than four points and there were five ties in the half, with the score 29-all at intermission.

Sweat, Towns and Ayodeji scored the first 27 points of the second half for CU, as both teams scorched the nets after the break to the tune of 55 percent from the field. Cumberland opened the period with a 17-7 spurt for a 10-point edge, but the Lions cut into the deficit, getting within 56-54 after a Dion Fair basket with 6:34 to play.

The Bulldogs never relinquished the lead and Ayodeji's 3-pointer with 2:39 to play pushed the advantage back to seven. CU made all six free throw attempts in the final 31 seconds, preserving the victory.

Ron Riley led the Lions with 30 points, going 12-of-16 from the floor, and added eight rebounds while Carrin Nash recorded 12 points and Fair finished with nine.

Michael Sweat scored 10 points and grabbed five rebounds but Middle Tennessee shot 75 percent from the field in the second half, breaking open a close game en route to an 88-48 exhibition victory over Cumberland here Tuesday night at Murphy Center.

The Bulldogs went more than five minutes of the second half without a point, allowing the Blue Raiders (5-1) to run off 13 consecutive points and break open a game that CU trailed just 37-24 at the half.

Iowa State transfer LaRon Dendy netted 14 of his 21 points in the second half, leading four players in double figures for Middle Tennessee. JT Sulton added 14 points, Kerry Hammonds netted 11, including a trio of 3-pointers, and Jason Jason posted 10 points.

The Bulldogs had several chances in the second half that rimmed out and the Blue Raiders nearly could not miss, making 18-of-24 shots after the break. CU also committed 17 turnovers that led to 19 points for the home team.

The Bulldogs made just 4-of-17 from the field in the first 12 minutes of the game, falling behind 23-10, and trailed 34-18 at the four-minute media timeout but closed the gap before halftime.

Sweat made a bucket underneath and Charles Stewart hit two free throws just after the media break. Sweat added a putback and Kyle Upton hit an 18-footer, as CU outscored the Blue Raiders, 10-3, over the final five minutes of the period. The Bulldogs went to the locker room behind 37-24.

Redshirt freshman Daniel McFadden scored 15 points, hitting a trio of 3-pointers, and Moritz Dern and Lamar Brinkley each added 10 points in Cumberland's 91-51 victory over Hiwassee College in men's basketball action Wednesday night at the Dallas Floyd Recreation Center.

McFadden, a Nashville native who attended Ensworth School before redshirting last season at Birmingham Southern, missed the first six games of the season with a foot injury but made 6-of-10 shots, including 3-for-4 from behind the arc, in 20 minutes of action in his debut Wednesday night. He led all scorers in the contest.

All 14 Cumberland (6-1) players scored in the victory, with Brinkley adding seven rebounds in 14 minutes of action and Charles Stewart scoring just two points but handing out six assists.

The Bulldogs put together a 23-4 run in the first half that included eight different players scoring, 3-pointers from Andrew Ayodeji, Dern and Adam Barnett and finished off with a thunderous dunk by Brinkley. CU shot 46 percent in the period and scored 16 points off 12 Hiwassee turnovers.

Brinkley and Kyle Upton each netted seven points in the period for Cumberland, as the home team took a 42-17 advantage.

The second half was much the same, with CU pushing the advantage to 32 after an Ayodeji layup with 13:40 remaining. McFadden's 3-pointer from the wing gave the Bulldogs an 84-45 lead with 4:28 to play.

Justin Browner and Cody Lewis both scored 10 points for the Tigers (3-8).

Cumberland overcame a slow start and then ended the game with an 8-1 run, holding off Auburn Montgomery, 68-57, in men's basketball action Saturday at the Dallas Floyd Recreation Center.

Michael Sweat scored 11 of his team-high 15 points in the first half and Lamar Brinkley added 13 for the Bulldogs (7-2), who played their first game in 14 days. Josh Piece added nine points, all in the second half, while Jerret Towns netted six straight points at a crucial point of the final period.

Brinkley scored a bucket underneath nearly five minutes into the opening half for CU's first points, and 3-pointers from Adam Barnett and Daniel McFadden fueled a 12-5 run that tied the contest at 14 with just under eight minutes to play in the period.

The Bulldogs forced six AUM (2-9) turnovers in the final eight minutes of the half with a full-court press and scored 15 points off a dozen Warhawks miscues in the period. Sweat scored all 11 of his points in the last seven minutes of the period, as CU put together a 16-5 run to end the half, including Kyle Upton's high-arching trifecta just as the buzzer sounded for a 35-26 advantage.

Brinkley netted nine points in the period while AUM's Michael Lee tied Sweat for game-high honors with 11.

Cumberland stretched its lead to 10 on several occasions in the second half but AUM continued to hang around thanks to eight points from Lee and six by A.J. Ansley and Stephen Jordan. Lee's driving layup with 3:25 to play pulled the Warhawks within 60-56 before Sweat answered with a basket in the lane, but he was unable to complete the 3-point play.

AUM missed all five of its shots in the final three minutes and committed one turnover. Michael Willis made 1-of-2 foul shots for the club's only points, as Johnny Williams had a steal and then found a hole near the basket in a zone defense for an easy bucket with 51 seconds remaining.

The Bulldogs won the game on several different fronts, knocking down 19-of-21 free throws and scoring 23 points off 20 AUM turnovers. CU also had 15 second-chance points off 13 offensive rebounds.

Lee finished with a game-high 19 points to lead the Warhawks, Ansley added 10 and Stephen Jordan posted nine and eight rebounds.

Michael Sweat scored seven of his team-high 16 points during an 11-3 run late in the second half, leading Cumberland to a 75-64 victory over William Woods University on Friday in the Cougars vs. Cancer Classic in Columbia, Mo.

Cumberland put together a 10-2 spurt in the middle of the first half to take a 25-14 advantage. Ajuma Jaramogi and Adam Barnett both netted baskets, Kyle Upton hit a pair of 3-pointers and Sweat finished the run with a bucket. But the Owls (7-8) fought back, cutting the deficit to four with a 3-pointer from Dontre Jenkins with 3:29 to play in the half before CU scored the final five points of the period to take a 34-25 lead to intermission.

The Bulldog advantage stayed between eight and 11 points for the first 10 minutes of the second half, but William Woods cut the deficit to three with seven consecutive points by Jonathan Nutt. Barnett answered with a bucket for CU and after an Andrew Miller field goal for WWU, Sweat started the decisive run with a free throw.

Upton and Johnny Williams both added baskets during the stretch that pushed the lead back to 10 with 4:30 to play. The Owls never pulled closer than seven to the rest of the game and the Bulldogs made 8-of-10 free throws in the final two minutes to seal the victory.

Williams finished with 13 points and nine assists while Lamar Brinkley recorded eight points and 12 rebounds.

Logan Decker led all scorers with 21 points, Nutt added 12 points and Miller posted 10 points.

Lamar Brinkley tied his season-high with 18 points and Cumberland started both halves with big run, cruising to an 89-72 victory over Lyon College in men's basketball action Thursday night in Batesville, Ark.

The Bulldogs (9-3, 1-0 TranSouth) opened the contest with an 18-6 spurt and put together a 15-4 run to begin the second half. Brinkley netted eight of the team's first 10 points in the game and was 6-of-9 from the field and 6-for-6 at the foul line for his game-high point total.

The second-half run gave the Bulldogs a 56-36 advantage and Lyon never pulled within single digits the rest of the way. All 14 Cumberland players scored in the victory in the conference opener for both teams. Michael Sweat added 12 points and seven rebounds in the win, Kyle Upton scored seven and Daniel McFadden posted seven points.

CJ Blount led the Scots with 16 points and Daniel Cowart added 14. Kendall Leeks and Rickey Thomas each netted 10 for the home team.

The Bulldogs made nine of their first 13 shots from the field en route to a 21-8 advantage nine minutes into the contest. The Scots cut into the deficit but never pulled closer than seven the rest of the half. Sweat finished the scoring in the period with just his second field goal with 37 seconds left, giving CU a 41-32 advantage at intermission.

Johnny Williams scored 14 points with seven rebounds and seven assists for Cumberland and Jerret Towns added 13 points off the bench in a nail-biting 82-81 victory over 17th-ranked Freed-Hardeman Saturday at the Dallas Floyd Recreation Center.

The Bulldogs held the lead for almost the entire second half, including 78-71 with 2:18 to play, after nine ties and 10 lead changes in the opening period. Charles Stewart missed a driving layup on CU's next possession and then Williams made 1-of-2 foul shots with 1:08 to play, giving the home team a 79-75 edge.

Mark Brown nailed a 3-pointer from the wing for the Lions, cutting the deficit to one, before Stewart connected on 1-of-2 attempts at the charity stripe with 21 seconds remaining. But Michael Sweat tipped out the missed foul shot and Williams made both free throws, pushing the lead back to 82-78.

Freed-Hardeman would not go away and the smallest man on the court, Anthony Sampson, made a 3-pointer from the top of the key, again making it a one-point game. Williams was then fouled with 4.2 seconds left but took an inadvertent knee-to-the-head from FHU's Vincent Dotson. Williams was attended to by trainers, giving Lions head coach Jason Shelton the opportunity to select another foul shooter from the five players on the court for Cumberland.

Towns, the team's leading free throw shooter at 85 percent, was selected, but he rimmed out both chances and FHU called its final timeout with 3.8 seconds left. On the ensuing in-bounds play, Kyle Teichmann went from the top of the key into the paint and set a pick. Chandler Mack came off the pick but was never able to receive the long pass, as Towns and Sweat both converged on the ball and Towns knocked it away.

Unfortunately for CU the ball went toward the FHU endline, where Teichmann ran it down, but his fall-away 3-pointer fell well short and four players, two from each team, collided trying to get the miss just as the buzzer sounded.

Kyle Upton scored 10 points for CU but spent much of the second half on the bench with foul trouble. Andrew Ayodeji made a trio of 3-pointers and netted 11, while Lamar Brinkley posted nine points, all in the first half, and six rebounds.

Sampson recorded 13 points, six boards and 13 assists, leading five Lions players in double figures. Teichmann led the way with 21 points, but the nation's sixth-leading scorer earned all of them. Mack finished with 17 points and Reginald Gilmore and Jonathan Milewski each recorded 11.

Cumberland held a 44-43 advantage after a back-and-forth opening half. Neither team held a lead of more than five points and both shot better than 50 percent from the field.

Lamar Brinkley scored a season-high 21 points and Brinkley and Jerret Towns both recorded double-doubles, as Cumberland led wire-to-wire in a 70-62 victory over Trevecca Nazarene in men's basketball action Saturday here at Moore Gymnasium.

The Bulldogs (12-3, 4-0 TranSouth) never trailed and led by as many as 13 points in the first half and 15 in the second half en route to their fifth consecutive victory in the series. Brinkley finished with 11 rebounds and Towns added 13 points and 10 boards, as CU won the battle of the boards, 41-33.

Brinkley netted 13 points after intermission and was 9-for-12 from the field in the game. Towns also finished 6-of-9, part of 49 percent shooting as a team for the Bulldogs.

Cumberland jumped out to a 21-8 advantage in the first half and led 34-22 at the break. CU pushed the lead to 15 in the first two minutes of the second half, but the Trojans responded with a 14-3 spurt that cut the deficit to four.

Eric Orr scored five points during the run and Marquise Rudolph, who paced the Trojans with 20 points, contributed seven during the stretch. Daniel McFadden's 3-pointer from the corner got the Bulldogs back on track and Josh Pierce added a trifecta from the opposite corner two minutes later, giving the visitors a 10-point edge.

Trevecca (11-6, 3-1) pulled within five after two free throws from Keith Morris with 10:13 remaining, but Brinkley completed an old-fashioned 3-point play on the ensuing possession and added back-to-back field goals inside of seven minutes to keep the advantage at 10.

Orr finished with 16 points, 14 in the second half, and Michael France, who entered the game averaging almost 22 points per game, posted 12 of 5-of-13 shooting.

Charles Stewart recorded eight points, six rebounds and four assists off the bench for CU and McFadden added seven.

The Bulldogs started quickly, taking a 21-8 advantage on the last of four Brinkley field goals with 9:39 to play in the half. But the Trojans scored eight straight to cut the deficit to five thanks to four points from Rudolph.

Cumberland ended the half on an 11-3 spurt that included a pair of field goals from Towns and an old-fashioned 3-point play by Stewart. CU won the battle of the boards, 20-13, and took a 34-22 advantage to intermission.

 Cumberland Univ. 34 32 66
 Bethel Univ. 37 39 76

Caleb Hardy posted 21 points and 13 rebounds and Bethel won the battle of the boards, 47-30, defeating 23rd-ranked Cumberland, 76-66, in men's basketball action here Monday night at Dishman Gymnasium.

The Bulldogs (12-4, 4-1 TranSouth) didn't do much right on either end of the floor, shooting just 31 percent in the second half and missing numerous easy buckets around the goal. CU also did not defend or rebound well, with the Wildcats (12-6, 2-2) shooting 46 percent for the game and grabbing 14 offensive rebounds that led to 13 second-chance points.

Hardy, a 6-4 small forward, did a little of everything, making 7-of-13 from the field and at the foul line. George Coleman added 19 points and Stephen Gillette and Jarvis Palmer both netted 10 points for Bethel. Gillette added seven rebounds while Josh Swing came off the bench to post eight points and five boards.

Cumberland finished just 6-for-23 from behind the arc and no Bulldog player scored in double figures. Daniel McFadden recorded all nine of his points in the first half, Michael Sweat finished with nine points and Lamar Brinkley and Johnny Williams both netted eight points.

The Bulldogs went more than five minutes without a field goal in the second half and the Wildcats put together a 14-4 run during the stretch, with Coleman hitting a pair of 3-pointers and Hardy adding four points. CU came back within 54-52 after an Andrew Ayodeji field goal with 8:39 to play, but Bethel reeled off eight consecutive points, including six straight points by Gillette. Cumberland never cut the deficit to less than five the rest of the way.

Cumberland started very slowly offensively, making just 3-of-13 shots to start the contest. The Bethel offense was running with precision on the other end, with leading scorer Coleman netting 10 points in the period, including a pair of 3-pointers.

McFadden kept CU in the contest with nine points off the bench, including a pair of buckets in the final three minutes Brinkley made his first 3-pointer of the season with 19 seconds remaining and then made a steal on the other end, as CU went to the locker room down 37-34.

Martin Methodist started fast, ended the first half on a 15-3 run and never looked back, as the ninth-ranked RedHawks defeated Cumberland, 84-69, in men's basketball action Saturday at the Dallas Floyd Recreation Center.

The Bulldogs (12-6, 4-3 TranSouth) dropped their third straight game overall and second consecutive at home after starting the year 7-0 at the DFRC. CU shot just 35 percent, committed 12 turnovers and trailed 44-25 at the end of the first half.

The RedHawks (15-4, 5-1) were never threatened after intermission, keeping the lead between 16 and 23 until the final minute of the game. LaQuantis Stewart led four MMC players in double figures with 18 points, while James Justice and Jeremy Rodgers both netted 17 and Ree McCrory posted 13. Demario Williams added nine points and tied EJ Kirby for high honors with seven rebounds.

Jerret Towns paced the Bulldogs with 12 points and seven boards off the bench. Charles Stewart and Andrew Ayodeji both recorded 10 points and Stewart added three assists.

MMC led 11-2 and 16-5 in the early going thanks to seven points from McCrory, including a pair of free throws before the opening tip after a CU player dunked during warm-ups. The Bulldogs pulled within six points on two occasions and trailed 29-22 after a Josh Pierce bucket with 4:18 left in the half, but the RedHawks put together a 15-3 spurt to end the period.

Justice started the run with a 3-pointer and David Champagne hit six free throws, the final two 34 seconds before intermission, giving MMC a 44-25 advantage at the break.

Cumberland shot 55 percent from the field in the second half but could never mount a run against the RedHawks, who at times beat CU up the floor for easy baskets even after Bulldog makes.

Michael Sweat scored 24 points, Lamar Brinkley added 19 and Cumberland used an 11-0 run to start the second half to pull away and defeat Oakwood University, 75-57, in men's basketball action Monday night at the Dallas Floyd Recreation Center.

The Bulldogs (13-6) ended a three-game losing streak with the victory and shot an astounding 67 percent (14-of-21) from the field in the second half, extending a three-point edge at the break to as many as 18 late in the game. The 11-0 run opened a 14-point cushion and the Ambassadors (8-9) six the rest of the way.

Sweat scored four points and Johnny Williams, who finished with nine points, five rebounds and four assists, added an old-fashioned 3-point play during the spurt after the break. CU maintained at least an eight-point edge until an 8-0 run by Oakwood that featured buckets from Estilus Lahens, Tommy Wright and Ryan Moore and two free throws from Ronnie Clark cut the Bulldog lead to 59-53 with 4:36 to play.

But CU answered with an easy basket from Sweat plus the free throw and the senior added a 3-pointer from the top of the key a minute later to push the advantage back to 12. It was the second highest point total of the year for Sweat, who shot 10-for-12 from the field in the contest.

Brinkley netted eight of his 19 points over the final two-plus minutes, including a perfect 4-for-4 at the foul line. The junior finished with 10 rebounds as well for his third double-double of the season. Kyle Upton also posted nine points off the bench for Cumberland.

Lenard Bryant led the Ambassadors with 15 points and eight rebounds and Tommy Wright netted 12 as well.

The Bulldogs struggled early with the Oakwood press and trailed 8-2 and 11-6 before reeling off a 9-4 run led by four points from Upton. The 15-13 edge was CU's only lead of the half until the 4:35 mark when Sweat's dunk put Cumberland ahead, 24-22.

CU stretched the advantage to 33-25 with a 16-5 spurt highlighted by nine points from Sweat and a pair of old-fashioned 3-point plays, one each by Upton and Brinkley. But a slight lapse defensively allowed the Ambassadors to run off eight consecutive points and tie the game for the fourth time in the period, the last two points coming from Moore.

Ayodeji made the first free throw with 4.3 seconds, missed the second rebound and found Sweat for a dunk just before the half ended for a 36-33 CU lead. Oakwood outrebounded CU, 19-11, leading to 15 second-chance points.

Michael Sweat hit a jumper with 1.2 seconds remaining and then stole the inbound pass, sealing a 54-52 Cumberland victory over Auburn Montgomery in men's basketball action Monday night in Montgomery, Ala.

The Bulldogs (14-7) shot just 33 percent in the contest but out-rebounded the Warhawks, 42-33, including nine by Terry Williams and seven along with four assists and 10 boards from Johnny Williams, who was playing against his old team.

Cumberland led by as many as eight points on two occasions in the second half, the first at 39-31 after a Josh Pierce fastbreak layup and the second at 43-35 after a jumper from Daniel McFadden with 11:39 to play. AUM put together a 13-4 spurt led by four points each by Justin Zachary and Alex Hergott, taking a 48-47 edge with 5:34 to play on a Zachary layup.

CU answered with a 3-pointer from Adam Barnett and a jumper by Johnny Williams, but two free throws from Hergott and then a bucket by the senior with 34 seconds left tied the contest at 52. Johnny Williams setup the winning shot by Sweat, who finished with 13 points. McFadden added 10 points and five boards off the bench.

The two teams made just 18-of-61 field goals and combined for 19 turnovers in the first half, with Cumberland taking a 28-23 advantage. Hergott's 3-pointer gave AUM a 13-6 advantage and a layup by Trey Geter put the home team ahead, 16-8.

The Bulldogs ended the half on a 20-7 run that started with three straight buckets by McFadden. A 3-pointer and then an old-fashioned 3-point play from Johnny Williams gave CU its first lead of the game and the senior added two free throws with 1:13 to play for the final points of the period.

Michael Sweat scored 13 points and tied a career-high with 16 rebounds and Cumberland pulled away in the second half for a 73-58 victory over Lyon College in men's basketball action Thursday night at the Dallas Floyd Recreation Center.

Daniel McFadden added 14 points and Charles Stewart netted 11, both off the bench, as the Bulldogs (15-7, 5-4 TranSouth) ended a four-game conference losing streak. CU shot 59 percent in the second half to expand its two-point halftime edge and send Lyon (7-14, 1-8) to its 12th loss in the last 13 outings.

Lamar Brinkley posted 11 points and Johnny Williams had 10 for Cumberland, while CJ Blount led all scorers with 20 points, including three rim-rattling putback dunks, and grabbed 15 rebounds to pace the Scots. Daniel Ritchie was the only other Lyon player in double figures with 14 points, as the visitors shot just 38 percent from the field for the game.

Neither team could muster much offense in the first half, with the teams combining to make only 21-of-57 field goals. The Scots jumped out to an 11-5 lead behind five points from Ricky Thomas, but the Bulldogs came back with a 9-2 spurt that included two buckets by Terry Williams and the first of three 3-pointers in the period by McFadden.

Neither team led by more than three the rest of the half and Andrew Ayodeji's trifecta with 1:10 on the clock gave CU a 29-27 edge at the half.

Lyon hung around to start the second half, cutting the deficit to two after a Slater Belew layup with 12:34 remaining, but CU answered with an 11-2 spurt that ended with a 3-pointer from Sweat and an old-fashioned 3-point play by Brinkley. The Scots never got closer than seven points the rest of the way.

Lamar Brinkley posted 17 points and 10 rebounds and Cumberland shot 52 percent from the field in recording a 73-66 victory here Thursday night at Blue Mountain College in men's basketball action.

The Bulldogs (17-7, 7-4 TranSouth) won their fourth straight game overall and fifth in the last six outings. CU knocked down eight 3-pointers in the contest, three by Josh Pierce, who finished with 12 points.

Cumberland started quickly and led by as many 10 points in the first half, but BMC closed the period with a 9-2 spurt, cutting the deficit to 32-30 at the break. A 12-2 spurt early in the second half pushed the CU advantage to 46-36 with 11:24 to play.

The Bulldogs led by as many as 17 later in the period, with Brinkley netting 10 of his 17 points after the break.

Jarvis Fisher nearly kept the Toppers (7-16, 0-11) in the game single-handedly, posting a game-high 27 points on 11-for-14 shooting with three 3-pointers. Shane Butler added 12 points for BMC, who scored the final seven points of the game to make the final score closer than it really was.

Michael Sweat finished with 14 points and six boards and Daniel McFadden added 10 points off the bench for CU.

Michael Sweat scored a season-high 26 points and Lamar Brinkley added 18, as Cumberland led wire-to-wire and defeated rival Trevecca Nazarene for the sixth straight time, 74-64, on Saturday in men's basketball action at the Dallas Floyd Recreation Center.

The Bulldogs (18-7, 8-4 TranSouth) posted their fifth straight win overall this season as well as the ninth in the last 10 meetings with the Trojans (16-9, 8-4). Sweat netted five 3-pointers and the Bulldogs shot 52 percent from the field in the game, including 57 percent in the second half, holding off a rally by Trevecca after intermission.

Cumberland led early in the game and took an eight-point advantage at the break. The Bulldogs pushed the lead to 12 early in the second half, but an 11-2 run by the Trojans tied the game at 53 with 8:11 remaining after consecutive buckets from Eric Orr.

Sweat answered on CU's next trip with a trifecta and added another two minutes later and the Trojans never pulled closer than two the rest of the game. TNU went more than three minutes down the stretch without a point, missing four free throws as well as committing a pair of turnovers. CU scored nine points during the dry spell, lengthening a two-point advantage to 11 thanks to five points from Johnny Williams.

Williams finished with 11 points and five assists and Kyle Upton added eight off the bench, including 4-for-4 at the foul line late in the game.

Orr led four Trojans in double figures with 15 points, while Michael France netted 14, Marquise Rudolph posted 12 and Maliek Daniels recorded 10. The Bulldogs started fast with 3-pointers from Williams.

Sweat and Brinkley, but the Trojans tied the game at nine with buckets by JP Nyadaro, Orr and Randolph. Sweat added two more trifectas in the half and Josh Pierce slammed home a dunk at the 7:28 mark of the first half for a 22-13 advantage.

Andrew Ayodeji's 3-pointer from the corner gave CU a 31-22 edge and the Bulldogs held a 32-24 lead at the break.

Josh Pierce's two free throws with 8.7 seconds remaining put Cumberland ahead and a tip-in by Union's Skyler Vaden was disallowed, giving the Bulldogs a thrilling 66-65 victory here Monday night in men's basketball action at DeLay Gymnasium.

The Bulldogs (19-7, 9-4) held a five-point edge with 2:35 remaining after Pierce, a 33 percent foul shooter for the season, knocked down two shots. But Cumberland did not score on four straight possessions, allowing Union to regain the lead with a pair of 3-point plays, the first by Vaden and the second from David Lane with 22.9 seconds remaining.

The Bulldogs worked the ball around and Pierce was fouled on the baseline with 8.7 seconds left. After a timeout by Union, the Valdosta, Ga., senior cooled nailed two more free throws and CU regained the lead. Lane drove the ball the length of the floor, was forced into the air under the baseline and passed to Dani Marti, who took a high-arching jumper that did not hit the rim.

Vaden tipped in the missed shot and one official called the shot good, but after a meeting of all three officials the basket was waved off, giving the Bulldogs their sixth consecutive victory overall and first over Union in the last six meetings.

The game featured 16 ties and 16 lead changes. Cumberland led by nine in the first five minutes of the game, but from there Union's six-point edge late in the first half was the largest lead for either team.

Jerret Towns scored a season-high 17 points off the bench, including three 3-pointers, while Johnny Williams added a season-best 16 points with six rebounds and three assists in 35 minutes. Backup point guard Charles Stewart missed his third straight game with an injury.

Michael Sweat netted 11 points and Lamar Brinkley posted 10 before fouling out with just over a minute to play.

Lane led five Union players in double figures with 14 points, while Vaden posted 12 points and 10 rebounds. Anthony Freeman, Leventrice Gray and Antoine Hall all scored 12 points as well.

The Bulldogs started quickly and led 11-2 in the first five minutes, including 3-pointers from Williams and Sweat, but Union answered with a 12-0 run with a 3-point play by Gray and a 3-pointer from Vaden.
